

The Youth Advocacy Network (YAN), support 42 vulnerable pupils, benefited school materials from YAN, through STA on the 15th October 2019.

In the office at 4:00pm.

The president congratulate all the parents, and tell them about the decision that STA made, for those who benefited the school materials support last year, they are not going to be given school bag, except the BECE students.

Statement from the parents.

Abubakar is a disabled, his mother said, for the past academic year Abubakar is not even wearing uniform, she does not have money to afford it, but with the help of YAN, for this academic year, he is supported with school materials, She thanks YAN for there support.

Sallay Jabbie, whoes mother is a disabled said she struggle a lot to provide food, that cause Sallay Jabbie to wear one uniform for more than three (3) academic year, and she expressed her appreciation with Joy.

Sajor Jalloh, his father said he was emulated that his son is not capable of going to school, which makes him not to support Sajor Jalloh, instead he support the other children, but since YAN started supporting him, there is improvement and he is going to attempt his first WASSCE, and congratulate YAN.

CHALLENGES

1. Change in price (increased in price).
2. Late arrival of financial support.

SUCCESS

1. It exposed YAN to others.
2. It encourage Students to study at home.
3. It motivated them to be serious in academic work.
