

YOUTH ADVOCACY NETWORK ACTIVITY REPORT,

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY,

8th March 2024.

The youth Advocacy Network (YAN) successfully celebrate international women's day at their office.

In the argenda the following items were discussed opening prayer, introduction of the chair person, well coming address, purpose of the program. The chair person was introduced by Famata Sewa, and chair person was Feremusu S Marah, the welcoming address was don by Iye Barrie, and the purpose of the program was don by Hassan Turay, he say YAN under take the international women's day for the women's to know their right and responsibilities in their homes and community. In the argenda the children foron Net Work (CFN) act a drama title women's day.

There six members of CFN who act the drama, the drama teach ours about genders violence and empowerment of women's in our country, in any institution or organization there must be two or three women's who own position. In our country we think that the men's are supposed to be president, minister, paramount chief etc, the drama teach ours that we should give support and empower the women's to take up responsibilities.

Y A N prepare a work sheets about genders awareness, which the audience was divided into four groups respectively to do the groups work.

STATEMENTS

From children forum Net Work (CFN)

From Sereh Isata Sparrow

From School For The Blind

From Sereh Munafa

From YAN

On the statements from CFN they says the international women's day his a day that is celebrate all over the world, this day is about respecting women's, not only men's should be educated if you educate a woman you have educate the whole nation. The Men's should work with the women's hand and glove and give them support and the men's should take care of their women's like a treasure, and the says the men's should out women's first in any institution or organization.

Serah Munafa says they are very happy for the international women's day and they appreciate YAN for under take this activities with the women's and teach them their right and responsibilities in their homes and community.

Sereh Isata Sparrow says they are happy with YAN to under take the international women's day and they says let the women's put effort on their studies and avoid men.

School For The Blind, they says, they are very happy to under take this activities with the women's and appreciate YAN to continue their good job in Koinadugu district.

Youth Advocacy Network (YAN) says they are community based organization, and they also advocate for the women's, and give support to vornorable pupils, and thanks the donor for supporting the international women's day.

SUCCESS .

The women's are very happy for clebrate this day with them.

And the men's who be part of the activities promise to work with the women's.

The program teach the audience that women's should not supposed to be at the back.

The program create a good relationship among women's and other partners.

CHALLENGES .

It was difficult to reach the office.

The setting accomodations is scare.

The transportation fees.

The environment was noisy.

RECOMMENDATIONS .

The various women's groups asked YAN to give them support.

Members asking donors for another convince place.